Office of Transportation, Laurens R. R. S. C., Aug. 4, 1853.

J. C. Ayea. Dear Sir,—My little son, four years old has just recovered from a severe attack of malignam Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that yisited him, pronounced him a dead child. Having used your Cherry Percorat, in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a tea-spoon-full every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by ten o'clock at night. I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use, he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent. For all affections of the Throat and Lungs, I believe it the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude, prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect,

Rock Hill, (Summerset Co.,) N. J., July 21, 1852.

Dr. J. C. Aver,—Since your medicine has been known here, it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and know of some cases where the best they can say of it is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified it seeing the benefit it confers.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me Yours, with respect, JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

This bill elicited considerable discussion, several Senators having expressed opposite views. It was argued that the passage of the bill would establish a precedent, the example of which would prove injurious, as many similar applicants would appeal to the Legislature for like redress. Mr. BARLOW expressed, in graphic terms, his decided opposition to the bill, on the principle that, should it become a special law, it would form a precedent for many others to clair similar redress, whether real or imaginary. He would sooner see a general bill passed that would answer all similar applications than to legislate as contemplated in the bill under discussion The bill passed on a division of the Senate-

An Original Letter of Mr. Webster. From the National Intelligencer.

When the Lives of the Lord Chancellors was pub lished by Lord Campbell, some years ago, the dis-tinguished author transmitted a copy of his work to the late Daniel Webster. In acknowledgment of the compliment our illustrious countryman addressed a letter to Lord Campbell, for a copy of which we are indebted to the kindness of his then Private Secretary, Mr. C. Lanman, to whom Mr. Webster presented the original draft, as an autograph souvenir. The letter is eminentstyle, principles and political sentiments, and will be read with especial interest by professional men and with pleasure by all others:

My Lord Campbell: Some days of unexpected leisure have given me an opportunity of reading the Lives of the Lord Chancellors; and I feel irresistibly impelled to signify to your Lordship the pleasure and profit which the perusal of the volumes has afforded me. The subject is a noble one, and has been treated according to its merits. The work may be read with advantage by all political and professional men. The lives which have most interested me are those of Ellsmere and Bacon, Charles York, and the incomparable Somers. All must be gratified to see the title of Ellsmere restored in the person of a wor-thy and accomplished descendant. As to Bacon, I agree with you that heretofore there has been no just history of his life. Indeed, I doubt whethwe shall ever be able to trace the progress of his extraordinary mind. I think his conceptions were without regular progress. A sort of intuition seems to characterize his mental power. Although I do not imagine that he fully comprehended himself, if one may do so, or knew the full extent and consequences of his own concep-tions, yet doubtless he felt conscious of his superiority to the age; and the manner to which he commends himself to the judgment of posterity "some centuries hence," is exceedingly touching. If England had been sunk in the sea the day of his death, Bacon would have made her men

The life of Charles York is a tale of deep pathos. One cannot read it without admiration, sympathy, and heartfelt sorrow. We know not what his future might have been; but how bright that future looked up to the evil hour in which he took the seals!

But the man of men is Somers. I assure you, my dear Lord, that I have made his character a contemplation and a study. I have collected and perused all that I could find concerning him; and I remember well that before I was admitted to the bar I read his defense of the "Seven Golden Candlesticks," not without tears, and rose from my chair and joined the shouts which conveyed the news of their triumph to the palace of the last of the Stuart Kings.

My Lord, excuse this intrusion. I have the honor of no acquaintance with your Lordship, beyond a casual introduction and a few minutes' conversation in the House of Lords; but your biography of the great men who have had seats on the wool-sack, and the manner in which it has been written, seem to bring congenial professional minds together, and to create a warmth of common feeling between the lovers of true constitutional liberty on both sides of the Atlantic; and Nottingham, and Hardwicke, and Eldon, as great teachers of equity jurisprudence, and Somers and Camden as intelligent and unterrified assert-ers of public liberty, will hereafter be held in the same regard, my Lord, by your posterity and

I am, with entire respect, your ob't sev't, DANIEL WEBSTER. To the Right Honorable LORD CAMPBELL.

Hon. James Sudduth.—The following remarks of a correspondent of the Mt. Sterling Whig are well deserved:

This section of the State has much to be proud of in the return of Hon. James Sudduth to the councils of the State, after an absence from them of nearly twenty years. When in the Legislature he was ever the consistent, able, and enlightened advocate of a liberal system of internal improvements by the State, and I do not doubt that he still entertains the same enlighteness views; the enterprises requiring State aid are dif-ferent from those of which he was the unflinching advocate in by-gone years, but the principle is the

I know him well. Bath and Bourbon may well be proud of such a Senator, and he should be proud of so liberal and enlightened a constituency. Perhaps no Senator has a constituency who have shown more liberality and public spirit involving subscriptions to the great improvements of the day.

I will venture that no Kentucky legislator will go further or do more towards adopting a liberal policy in promoting and fostering the great leading railway improvements than Mr. Sudduth LICKING.

Correspondence of the Philadelphia Ledger.

Washington, Jan. 7.

Gen. Walker appears to be getting into a bad way in Nicaragua. As was supposed by this Government when Mr. French presented himself here, the people of that country have really had no lot or part in the creation of the New Government, but it had been forced upon them. The inhabitants are now everywhere against their new Governor, and the people of New Grenada have almost all deserted the place. Gen. Walker issue a pronunciamento ordering them back, under penalty of a confiscation of their lands and but this has been utterly disregarded. Gen. Walker, it is said, has carried out his decree, and the residents have been deprived of all their property, which has been converted to the use of the State, or rather to the use of Walker and company. These are the latest advices, which may not be all true, but it is evident that the Walker Government is in a tottering condition, destitute of funds, detested by the people the originators of the scheme utterly destitute of both political and moral character; it must break down, and in its fall prostrate the Nicaragua Transit Company which has fostered and protected, if it did not start, the whole design of Walker's Expedition to Nicaragua.

STRAW-CUTTER QUESTION.

MESSRS. J. B. FORD &CO., of the city of New Albany, in the State of Indiana, claiming to be the owners of Sandford's paten-right to manufacture what is known as Sandford's Straw-Cutter, have sold the right to manufacture the same to various persons for certain prescribed territories, and they have warned the public against purchasing the Straw-Cutter manufactured by us. We have been for a long time satisfied that the so-called-Sanford patent is a fraud, and that it is void, being a palpable piracy and infringement of the patent-right of John Boynton, which bears date 25th day of September, 1838, and has expired. We have been satisfied that the machine denominated Sanford's perfect Straw-Cutter is constructed not according to the specifications contained in Sandford's patent, but according to the specifications contained in Boynton's and all this has recently been decided in the U. S. Circuit Court for the Middle district of Tennessee. Some months since, we sold to B. S. Weller, of Nashville, several of the so-called Sanford Straw-Cutters, which were taken by him to the State of Tennessee and there sold. Ch's M. Alexander claimed to be the assignee of Sanford's patent for the State of Tennessee from J. B. Ford & Co., and sued Weller on infringement. Welter defended and insisted that Sanford's patent is void and a piracy on Boynton's, and, as we before said, court and jury so-decided.

We are prepared, as heretofore, to furnish all orders for the Straw-Cutters manufactured by us, and to defend STRAW-CUTTER QUESTION. and jury so decided.

THE NEW YORK HORTICULTURAL REVIEW: A JOURNAL OF SUBURBAN ART.
SUPERBLY AND PROPERSELY ILLUSTRATED.

Devoted to the Advancement of the Rural Interests in America.

THIS is one of the largest and most elaborate works of the kind in the world.

Rural Architecture forms one of the principal features. Each number contains from two to four engravings of model cottages, from designs by eminent and skilful architects. Space is also assigned to the tasteful art of Landscape Gardening; engraved plans of gardens in every style, and adapted to the peculiarities of different orders of architecture, beautify the work.

Engravings of new fruits, new flowers, new vegetables, &c., are illustrated and described as soon as their respetive qualities can be determined, forming the most complete and elegant Manual of Rural Husbandry ever attempted.

An experienced corps of practical writers, seven in

We, the Republicans of Ohio, conceive ourselves to be exceedingly liberal, and sure that we employ freedom to its fullest extent, we wish to use our influence,—nay, our power, in extending our blessings to the rest of mankind. The people of the Territory of Kansas are now in a transition state. They are being transformed from tadpole subjects of a Territory into full-grown pollywog citizens of a State. We, the Republicans of Ohio, are under the impression that we are many reforms which demand speedy action, and to which I now call the attention of the Leand to which I now call the attention of the Legislature. One is a repudiation of the National Government—indirectly of course. IT is well known that there is great economy in crushing or grinding the kernels of all grain before feeding it to stock, and that there is much nutriment in the cobwinen properly broken or ground. And the only reason that mills arranged to produce these desired results have not been more generally introduced among planters and farmers, has been their complex arrangement and high

In the Kentucky Corn and Cob Mill, of which the In the Kentucky Corn and Cob Mill, of which the above is an accurate engraving, we claim to have produced a machine at once efficient, substantial and cheap, while its arrangement is so simple that the most ordinary hand can adjust and operate it. This machine, unlike any other, is regulated by means of a single set screw, which is easily moved by hand, and is applied directly under the centre of the mill.

Any one using these Mills will find a clear saving of one quarter of their corn over the old plan of feeding. We warrant these Mills to give entire satisfaction. Purchasers may use them for thirty days and if not satisfied, can return them and get their money.

They will grind Corn and Cob as fine as desired, at the following rate per hour, with one horse:

No. 1,4 to 5 bushels per hour. Weight 350 fbs. Price $25.00.

No. 1,4 to 3 bushels per hour. Weight 300 hs. Price $25 00.

No. 2, 6 to 8 bushels per hour. Weight 400 hs. Price $30 00. Adding freight from Louisville.

The above prices includes the complete Mill ready to hitch to without any further expense, and can be set in operation in five minutes time. For sale by

USE THE MAGIC IMPRESSION PAPER. MAGIC IMPRESSION PAPER.

POR WRITING WITHOUT PEN OR INK, copying Pleaves, flowers, plants, pictures, paterns for embroidery, marking linen indelibly and manifold writing. This article is absolutely the best portable inkstand in the known world, for a small quantity folded and placed in the pocket constitutes a traveling inkstand, which cannot be broken. No pen is needed; for any stick sharpen ed to a point writes equally as well as the best gold pen n the universe. For drawing it is indispensible. It is, indeed, the whole art of drawing and painting, taught in the losson. Any leaf, plant or flower can be transferred to the pages of an album with a minute and distinct resemblance of nature. With equal facility pictures and embroidery patterns are taken, and have received the highest eulogiums from the fair sex; and, indeed, a more tasteful present for a lady could not be produced.

The Magic Paper will also mark linen or other articles so as to remain perfectly indelible. All the washing in the world fails to bring it out. Any child can use it with ease. With this Magic Paper, one or four copies of every letter written can be secured without any additional labor whatever, making it the cheapest and most convenient article extant. It is used to a great advantage by reporters of the public press, telegraphic operators and hosts of others.

Each package contains four different colors—black, of the public press, teregraphic operators of others.

Each package contains four different colors—black, blue, green and red, with full printed instructions, for all to obtain five hundred distinct impressions. It is put up in beautifully enameled colored envelopes, with a truthful likeness of the proprietor attached. Each and every package warranted. Price $2 a dozen or five for $1. CORN AND COB MILL. We are often asked why we sell FURNITURE so much cheaper than other dealers in the article. For the benefit of all we will explain. It is the impression at home and abroad that DOXON & GRAHAM keep everything, and persons wishing an outfit for house-keeping, call on us and find in our store-rooms almost every article necessary for house-keeping, from a Roiling pin up to a sugar cured Ham, Table ware, Spices, &c., &c. Then they want FURNITURE. "Not calculating from the proceeds of profits," but from the fact that a complete outfit can be purchased at our house for house-keeping, relieves the purchased from the much trouble of the purchased at our house for house-keeping, relieves the purchased from much trouble. complete outfit can be purchased at our house for house-keeping, relieves the purchaser from much trouble and many snall bills, we have, for the accommodation of our outsomers, recently enlarged our furniture rooms, and can now, and will infuture be able to offerinducements to all wishing to purchase—provided lowest figures be an inducement.

It would be an endless undertaking to furnish a complete catalogue of the articles we offer for sale, in addition to Furniture; but, feeling a desire to benefit the public, we venture to call attention to a very few, as follows:

The Chain Pump.

The Chain Pump,

Decidedly the cheapest and most desirable Pump ever invented, and warranted to perform well when put up by us. We are prepared to furnish Iron and Wood curbing, and Iron, Zink, and Wood Curbing at very low prices.

Atmospheric and Suction Pump. This description of Pump is generally well known; they perform satisfactorily in shallow wells or cisterns, but their liability to freeze renders them troublesome.

The Suction and Force Pump. A most excellent Pump, upon the same principles of the Atmospheric Pump, capable of lifting waterthirty-three feet, and then forcing it fifty or sixty feet, from a short eather hose; but still this pump is also liable to freeze and burst, unless the valve is opened by elevating the conversifier numping.

A new invention for sewers and drains, costing only si cents per foot—easily put down and very durable; centainly the best and cheapest drain ever invented.

DESCRIPTION.

Jackson is a small man, five feet 6 or 7 inches high, thin visage, rather prominent nose, with a keen large greyish white eye, and looks one straight in the face, light hair, and very light beard, light complexion, rather inclined to be sallow, having the appearance of a man recovering from a spell of sickness, his mouth large, high forehead, but not prominent, broad across the shoulders for one so sparely made, with a long slender neck, stands erect.

Reserved in conversation and exceedingly watchful and suspicious, his mind is not cultivated, but he has traveled much and converses with intelligence, and presents the appearance of a retiring, pleasing, modest gentleman.

He is a printer by profession and has worked at the trade in the offices of the Reporter, Organ and Reville, St. Louis, Mo., and in the office of the Picayune, New Orleans lelegraphed to St. Louis he had died of yellow fever. He had himself reported as executed for crimes committed on the island of Cuba. Jackson is a desperate fellow and full of cunning and adroitness, and will doubtless disguise himself.
